“Onions”

18 inches by 18 inches
by Nancy Jeanette Long

Good old onions! Red onions, green onions, yellow onions, they make our recipes sing. As the artist was looking for something to paint she saw a shaft of sunshine through the kitchen window and - wow - what colors onions had!

This painting is a very modern “still life” — loose and free interpretation of onions in deep purple reds and yellow orange with a few touches of green for balance.

Abstract enough to fit in any room.

“I Love Onions” 45-RPM

Mint Condition 45 RPM record of “I Love Onions” by Susan Christie

Susan Christie’s first taste of success came with the release of the novelty-folk song,

Click this box to listen

“I Love Onions” on April 11, 1966. The song was picked up by Columbia Records. Described as having a catchy, quirky sound reminiscent of the 1920s, Christie’s breathy vocals are featured with a chorus of kazoo, harmonica and back-up singers. The song was well received, but only peaked at No. 63 on the Billboard Hot 100 chart. Released internationally, “I Love Onions” charted highest in Canada, where it came in at No. 19 on the RPM 100 national singles on August 1, 1966. It was featured in episodes of Captain Kangaroo, and later adapted for several television ads, including a 1980 Turtles Chocolate commercial. Source: Wikipedia
