Auction To-Do List

The NOA recognizes that not all members can make it to the auction, so on some of our bigger items, we are putting them online at bookerauction.com to give all of our members a chance to bid.

The online auction will close on July 17, giving those in attendance of the auction at the convention to bid.

You also may bid on any item by sending your top bid amount and item you're bidding on to René Hardwick at rhardwick@onions-usa.org.

The auction will be held after dinner on July 16.

General Rules

All sales are final. No exchanges or refunds on auction items are permitted.

Items are sold "as is" and "where is." Neither the auctioneer nor the consignor make any warranty or guarantees expressed or implied, as to age, condition, origin, authenticity of, or defect in.

Furthermore, no statement, verbally or in writing made prior to or during the sale, or in any advertisement or brochure related to the sale, will be regarded as a guarantee, or warranty, or assumption of liability.

Acceptable forms of payments: cash, check, or credit card (U.S. funds only). Payable on the evening of the auction, unless invoicing arrangements are made following the sale. All checks must be made payable to the National Onion Association. Checkout will take place at the close of the banquet. Items will be released upon presentation of payment.

By making a purchase, the buyer waives any claim of liability against the National Onion Association or the donor of the item or service. Neither the association nor the donor is responsible for any personal injuries or damages to property that may result from the utilization of items or services sold.

Gift certificates may be provided for items not present. Care was taken to write as much of a description as possible in the sale catalog, including all applicable restrictions. In the event of any discrepancy, the restrictions on the gift certificate govern the item.

All auction items and services must be used within the time limit specified.

Please note this is an interactive auction book. If you are viewing it online, you can click on company logos and many pieces of art to learn more. Or just click where you see underlined words.

Home firearms training kits

Imagine the simplicity of the in-home shooting range: you aim and shoot at the paper targets on the wall with your gun. At the same time, your big screen TV makes the realistic sounds and displays the hits in real-time like a spotting scope. You train with the real gun without ammo and get actual results. Is it sound like a future? Not at all.

It is a Modern Laser Dry Fire training. You already have all the most expensive components: your gun, your smartphone, your TV. Add the Training Kit and you all set. Practice with your own everyday carry or home defense firearm. Build and maintain muscle memory between shooting range visits. At home or at the range the weight, the grip, the sights and the trigger pull will remain the same.

1/2 page color ad

Onion World magazine is published eight times a year, and it is geared specifically toward our industry, helping growers understand research into onion growing and problems we face, and new products, along with updates on growers throughout the country. One half-page ad has a lot of staying power. While it's for a monthly magazine, people tend to keep those magazines around for handy reading.

Ornery Onion wall hangings

The Ornery Onions are full of faces to bring life into your garden, kitchen or patio. The frowner is sure to make your guest have tears of laughter and be the talk of the gathering, but don't let him catch you; it will only aggravate him more.

The smiling onion seems to delight in his tear-giving ways while knowing the great things onion offer.

They come as a pair. Made of clay, and would be a great acrylic art project.

Custom-framed watercolor

This stylish and delicate (5x7) water color of a blooming onion flower would go great in your kitchen, dining room, or office.

This is custom-framed, 15x17 piece is ready to hang and provide a touch of country elegance to your walls.

Donated by NOA.

Outdoor set

Make the most of your next outdoor birdwatching or hunting and camping trips with a set of Vortex® Diamondback HD 10x42 Binoculars and a 25-quart Bison cooler.
